And Brookings Institution Washington D. C. ; Security And Terrorism Studies), course: Homegrown Terrorists And Their Future Goals In Europe, language: English, abstract: On November 28th 2009, referendum, a constitutional amendment banning the construction of new minarets was approved by 57.5% of the participating voters in Switzerland (based on their direct-vote system). The outcome of such a referendum angered not the moderates but all radical Muslims throughout Europe, the Middle-East, Asia, Africa and Pakistan. Do those radicals do the same if Vatican venture to construct a Church in Riad or Istanbul? The reason is simple, the people of Switzerland (57%) were afraid by the dramatic development of Islamic institutions and the Europe-wide agitation of radicalists through their mosques and forums. As you can read in this book, the radical Muslims were angry because one of their strategic pillars that carried their future goals has failed, hidden or doomed. The initial strategy targeting Europe as the future battleground for radical Islamic...
