Savannah Celebrations includes some of our city s favorite dishes, and I know you ll love Martha s uncomplicated, delicious recipes as much as I do! -Paula Deen, best-selling author and Food Network personality Nobody knows coastal Southern fare like Martha, which is why I d recommend, no, insist, that you put Savannah Celebrations on your go-to bookshelf. -Mary Kay Andrews, New York Times best-selling author of Savannah Blues and Deep DishClassy and contemporary, simple yet sophisticated, this collection of recipes presents Savannah food in spectacular settings. The result of Martha Nesbit s more than three decades of entertaining, this resource includes everything the host will need to know to put together a party at home without the services of a caterer. From Chicken Tetrizzini for a casual bridge supper to Dottie s Baked Beans fit for a tailgate party and Chocolate Chip Pecan Pie for a holiday dinner, party dishes for all occasions are presented accompanied by gorgeous photographs taken in and around historic and modern homes in the area. Chapters include menus for a christening party, oyster roast, Fourth of July cookout, and more. Tips on creating a menu, perfectly timing the day of the event, and shopping lists are among the other highlights that will inspire readers to invite people into their homes, share a meal, and make memories.
