From the first time that Teodoro Cabrera interfered in Monica Walkers personal life in elementary school, he gave himself cause to be on her list of disliked people. Slowly over time he becomes her friend and they eventually find themselves trying to control their desires for something more. Before they graduate from high school, Teodoro lets her know that he will come back for her once hes finished with college so that he can have her by his side as he embarks upon his political career. Not long into her freshman year of college, Monica hears that Teodoro is ill. After she runs into him, they resume their friendship and stay close. Knowing that his time is short, Teodoro asks her to marry him. Monica loves him enough to let go of her life as she knows it. While dealing with in-law and race issues along with lifes other twists and turns, in this coming of age story, she does what she can to make his last days something to live for. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
