Child of Sorrow, Child of Joy (Paperback)

By Mary Smith

Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This book chronicles the poignant, true life journey of a woman who endured horrendous abuse as a child. The victim of a mentally ill mother, and an angry, violent older brother, she survived several attempts of murder, as well as severe physical, emotional, and psychological abuse. For several years she was forced to live in a dark closet whenever her father wasn't home. Emerging into adulthood as a shattered young woman, with only rudimentary social skills and knowing only how to be a victim, she collided with a world she was thoroughly unprepared for. After many years of agonizing struggle and travail she grew stronger, overcoming the deficits from her past. Her abusers were outraged that she didn't remain a good little victim once she grew up. Despite threats, shunning, and a firestorm of slander, she chose to break their code of silence and speak the truth so other victims could be set free. Amidst their hostility, she learned to forgive even the unforgivable, and learned to love even her enemies. Through forgiveness and love she...
