Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Yackety Yack, Vol. 13 The Yackety Yack for 1913 is fortunate in associating with itself the name of a loyal son of the University, who represents with honor to her and to the State her best traditions in a distant and exacting field - Mr. Junius Parker, of New York, N.Y., general counsel of the American Tobacco Company. Junius Parker comes by inheritance to the legal profession. His father, Capt. Edward S. Parker, is a prominent lawyer of Graham, who has filled the office of Solicitor of the old Fifth District, and has served in the State Senate. Junius Parker was born September 24, 1867, at Smithfield, but he entered the University in 1885 from Graham. As an undergraduate student, he remained only two years. He returned, however, to study law under Dr. Manning, and was admitted to the Bar in 1889. Mr. Parker practiced his profession for about five years at Durham. Those years were most important in his future life, since they brought him into contact with Mr. James B. Duke, the head of the American Tobacco Company, and Mr. W. W. Fuller, who as general counsel of the Company so ably conducted its legal affairs. Yet not for several years was he to become connected with that Company. In 1894, he removed to Knoxville, Tenn., where in a short time he built up a large and remunerative practice. He married, in 1899, Miss Mary W. Locke, of Knoxville; and the same year he removed to New York as assistant general counsel of the American Tobacco Company. Two years ago, when the United States Supreme Court rendered its decree in the famous...
