It is a painful remembering, a putting together of the dismembered past to make sense of the trauma of the present. Homi K. Bhabha (Y. Igarashi 3 2000) When we observe Japan and how it deals with its history, the question occurs if Japan tries to whitewash its wartime past or if there are any other reasons behind is. The aim of this essay is to discuss this question. In the first part of it I will try to outline the known fact of the Japanese contribution on the World War II as a kind of approach to this sensitive topic. The second part will be dedicated to the role of the International Military trial for the Far East in the accounting of the wartime past within the...
