Genl J. G. Caldwell, Pres t;, Together With the Report and Finding of the Court; Printed for Private Circulation and Future Ref After enduring, for nearly eight months, the horrors of a Southern prison, I found myself, almost on the very morning of my enfranchisement, (with a heart overflowing with joy, and sincerely thankful to that Providence which had so mercifully protected me from the ills and dangers of my incarceration, ) suddenly stripped of my happiness, and my liberty again restricted by the action of my own Government - which, for three years, I had manfully striven to uphold. On the very point of returning to my family, I was arrested by an order of the Secretary of War, and directed to confine myself to the limits of Willard s hotel. Conscious of no crime, I cheerfully yielded to the orders of my superior officer - confidently believing that a...
