

The anglers record Volume 1

By Leeds and District Anglers

RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 36 pages. Dimensions: 9.7in. x 7.4in. x 0.1in. This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1897 Excerpt: . . . Fishing Gazette says: -- Mr. Francis M. Walbran is probably one of the most practical and successful anglers that the North country has ever produced. The Field says: --Anything in the way of fishing requisites bearing the name of Walbran, Leeds, may be relied upon as being the best procurable. ONLY ADDRESS--19, Fleet Street, Leeds. No Agents. J Private letter box 176, G. P. O. , Leeds. Telegrams: Walbran, Leeds. was not going to touch game fish, in fact, his remarks were more, for novices. He had been an angler for 27 years and was going to give them his own practical experience along with that of such men as Walton, Bickerdyke, and others, illustrated with a few disgnims. He could not promise they they would always catch fish, as he, himself, had sometimes to come back with an empty creel. He then taught ns...

READ ONLINE
[1.26 MB]

Reviews

The very best book i at any time read. It generally does not price an excessive amount of. I discovered this publication from my dad and i recommended this book to understand.

-- Joeph Hettinger

These sorts of book is the greatest book offered. This can be for all those who statte that there had not been a really worth reading. I am just quickly could get a pleasure of reading a written ebook.

-- Verner Goyette DDS