

The Didache : The Epistle of Barnabus, the Epistle and Martyrdom of St. Polycarp, the Fragments of Papius, the Epistle of Diogentu (Ancient Christian Writers 34)

By JAMES A. KLEIST (TRANS.)

Paulist Press January 1985, 1985. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. An epochal manuscript discovery (1873) uncovered for posterity perhaps the most primitive example of catechesis of the whole patristic period. Possibly written as early as 70 A.D., the Didache presents the practice of Christian virtue structured by the two-fold commandment of love of God and of the neighbor. The second section outlines the practice of baptism and of prayer and fasting, while the third describes Church organization -- based upon "apostles," "prophets," and "teachers." This volume also includes several other important second-century documents: The Epistle of Barnabas, Polycarp's Epistles to the Philippians and the Martyrdom of Polycarp, the Fragments of Papias and the Epistle to Diognetus. 235 pp.
