Tate Publishing Enterprises, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 178 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Bible tells us death is doomed and the grave is a temporary motel where believers sleep until the resurrection morn. The Grand Reaper s contract is about to expire and will not be renewed. Hope is the bridge between the last breath and the Pearly White gates of heaven, and as long as we have God, we have hope! Saying good-bye at the graveside is not the grand finale of a few unfortunate, homeless bums. It is the fate of each and every human being should Jesus tarry. No one will be exempted. The good news is that when Jesus died and was resurrected, he jerked the stinger out of death and tore the prison bars off the grave. Saying Good-Bye is a compilation of nineteen funeral sermons and related materials prepared by Bob Brock. The content of Saying Good-Bye will be divided into the following sections for your convenience: Beatitudes for preaching a funeral. It includes basic and expanded outlines with each sermon. Graveside remarks for each sermon. Appropriate Scriptures at your fingertips. Prayers of comfort and blessing. Saying Good-Bye includes topics of special interest such as the following: Suicide Babies Heaven Unknown Spiritual condition Ministers.
