Excerpt: . color that belonged to the white connexion, and the only colored Methodist in the place at that time. conveyed me to Mrs. Murray s, where I remained a while; then the elderly lady, just mentioned, feeling interested for me, went to the proprietors of the Court-house with me, to see if we could get it to preach in, and like Esther the Queen, who fasted and prayed, and commanded the men of Jerusalem and the women of Zion to pray; as she approached the King the sceptre was bowed to her, and her request was answered to the saving of Mordica, and all the Jewish nation. When we approached this gentleman, who was the head Trustee of the Protestant Church, I showed him my recommendation, and he answered me, Madam, you can have it, and I felt humble to God for the answer. I felt it my duty to preach to the citizens, and accordingly made an appointment for Sunday afternoon at 4 o clock. Rev. James Ward, a colored Presbyl terian, assembled with us, although he was so prejudiced he would I not let me in his pulpit to speak; but the Lord made a way where there was no way to be seen; there was no person to intercede until this sister tried to open the way; the men of color, with no spirit of Christianity, remained idle in the enterprize, but we got possession and we had a large concourse...
